Overseas Passenger Terminal

ADDRESS

Overseas Passenger Terminal
Circular Quay, Sydney

GETTING THERE

Entry to the terminal is off George Street onto Argyle Street, Circular Quay.

While a cruise vessel is in port, passenger set down and pick up is available in the terminal precinct but parking is NOT allowed on-site.

Circular Quay train and ferry platforms are a two minute walk to the terminal. Click here for information relating to City Rail and Harbour City Ferries (Sydney Ferries).

ARRIVING AND DEPARTING

Arriving passengers will need to reclaim their luggage and then clear customs and immigration before exiting the terminal. It is a short walk to public transport (refer links above) or why not catch a taxi at the on-site taxi rank. There is also a designated pick up bay for private vehicles which will assist you in exiting the precinct.

Departing passengers should refer to their itinerary regarding what time they need to be present at the terminal for check-in as times do vary.

Bag drop facilities are available on the forecourt for the majority of ships from 9.30am. Check with your booking agent if you need to utilise this facility.

Only travelling passengers with valid tickets will be allowed to enter the terminal.

TERMINAL FACILITIES

Terminal facilities include:

- passenger lifts
- escalators
- wheelchair access
- toilets
- ATM
- on-site restaurant vendors where light snacks are available. Why not treat yourself to some of the finest food in Sydney! See below for more information regarding your food options at the Overseas Passenger Terminal:
  - Peter Doyle's @ the Quay – doyleatthequay.com.au
  - Quay Restaurant – quay.com.au
  - Yuki's at the Quay – yukis.com.au

  - Wildfire – wildfiresydney.com
  - Oceanroom – oceanroomsydney.com

There is no short or long term parking available on-site. There is also no foreign exchange or post office on-site; however, both facilities are only a short walk away.

Passengers should also be aware that there is no Duty Free available for purchase in the terminal.

All further queries regarding your trip should be directed to your booking agent.

CUSTOMS AND IMMIGRATION

International cruise voyage – all passengers departing on an international cruise voyage need to complete an outbound passenger card as well as a health card questionnaire. Both documents will be made available to you once inside the terminal.

Domestic cruise voyage – all passengers departing on a domestic cruise voyage need to complete a health questionnaire card which will be made available to you once inside the terminal. There is no requirement to complete an outbound passenger card.

TOURIST REFUND SCHEME (TRS)

A TRS desk is available in both terminals on international cruises. TRS enables you to claim a refund for the Goods and Services Tax (GST) and Wine Equalisation Tax (WET) that you paid on goods you have purchased in Australia. You can claim the TRS from Customs at embarkation after you have checked in.

WHEELCHAIR ACCESS

Both the Overseas Passenger Terminal and Barangaroo Wharf 5 terminal have wheelchair accessibility to the terminal and to the ship.

THINGS TO BRING

- International cruise – individual passport with a validity of at least six months.
- Domestic cruise – Government agency issued Photo ID.
- You're booking itinerary is required for all cruises.
- If you take regular medication ensure that you have sufficient supplies to last the length of your holiday. It is also wise to consider taking a couple of days extra supply in case of unforeseen changes in your plans.

WHAT NOT TO BRING

You are NOT permitted to bring any alcohol onboard for personal consumption.

Duty-free, tax-free and personal alcohol purchased onshore must be surrendered by passengers at embarkation or prior to boarding at any port.

All further queries regarding your trip should be directed to your booking agent.
